

COST ALLOCATION PLAN

A written cost allocation plan will be used to distribute costs among different functions when required by funding sources. Allocation procedures should be supported by time studies, square footage or other relevant statistics.